

Triathlon session at Sports Club on Sunday

Team TOI

Ahmedabad: Excitement is building up for the The Times of India-Sawya Swaraaj Super Sprint Triathlon, scheduled to be held in the city on April 20. Entries have been pouring in for the individual and team categories. The triathlon has prizes worth Rs 3 lakh up for grabs in various categories.

Race directors Lhas Trivedi and Kimberly Shah will attend a Q&A session with participants on Sunday from 8:30 am to 10:30 am at the ts Club. Entries, which are open till April 6, will be also taken on the spot.

Team entries are particularly welcome from groups of two to three participants each who can split the back-to-back swimming, cycling and running events between themselves. The triathlon starts with a 200 metre swim and is followed by 8km cycling and 2.5km running.

