

Rajkot marathon: 37000 participate; Kenyans, Ethiopians bag top prizes

IE Ahmedabad Mon, 25 Jan 2016

Summary: Cheteshwar Pujara (second from left) and municipal commissioner Vijay Nehra (third from left) compete at the Rajkot half marathon, in Rajkot on Sunday. Source: Express photo by Chirag Chotaliya MORE THAN 37,000 people participated in the inaugural Rajkot Half Marathon on Sunday with runners from Kenya and Ethiopia dominating the event in both men's and women's categories. Source: Express photo by Chirag Chotaliya Cheteshwar Pujara (second from left) and municipal commissioner Vijay Nehra (third from left) compete at the Rajkot half marathon, in Rajkot on Sunday. Minister of State for Science and Technology Govindbhai Patel and Rajkot Municipal Commissioner Vijay Nehra flagged off the 21-km half marathon. In Women's category, Ethiopian Etsegenet Zegeye was the first to finish the half marathon, clocking 1:20:43.

Cheteshwar Pujara (second from left) and municipal commissioner Vijay Nehra (third from left) compete at the Rajkot half marathon, in Rajkot on Sunday. Source: Express photo by Chirag Chotaliya Cheteshwar Pujara (second from left) and municipal commissioner Vijay Nehra (third from left) compete at the Rajkot half marathon, in Rajkot on Sunday. Source: Express photo by Chirag Chotaliya MORE THAN 37,000 people participated in the inaugural Rajkot Half Marathon on Sunday with runners from Kenya and Ethiopia dominating the event in both men's and women's categories.