LS Sports Management Pvt. Ltd. is not responsible for lost or stolen items. We understand that the sport of duathlon has a lot of rules and regulations. Please understand that we must follow those rules to ensure your safety and security of your racing gear.

Rules such as packet pick-up, wearing helmets, checking into transition on time and checking out of the race with your bike are strictly enforced.

Our goal is to bring the level of racing in India up to International standards with such events like the triathlon and duathlon. As a result - International Standards of racing in these events have no separation of fixed or geared cycles. We are doing categories the exact same way you could go and race anywhere else in the world.

SPONSOR

TITLE SPONSOR

Decathlon, the number one sporting good store in all of India has been a big support in all events LS Sports has produced. In our annual duathlon, Decathlon is not only our Title Sponsor, but the event location host.

We continue to thank and appreciate all the support Decathlon continues to give us, as we, together help make India a more fit nation.

Thank You.

THANK YOU

LS Sports would like to personally thank their sponsors and partners for the support they give that is needed to produce quality races. Without them, it would not be possible to continue to promote the importance of fitness we need in our every day lives.

LS Sports is selective with whom they choose to partner with; working only with organizations and business who wish to also promote healthy living.

Thank you again for your support.
